

CYNTHIA ISALES, ESQ.

Cynthia Isales has more than 15 years of experience in Landlord Tenant and Housing Law. She has been Court Attorney in both Bronx and Manhattan for more than eight years and is currently the Associate Court Attorney for the Honorable Marissa Soto in Bronx Civil Court. Prior to that, she was a Court Attorney for the Honorable Jack Stoller in Manhattan Housing Court. She also served as an Assistant District Attorney in Bronx County for five years after graduating from law school during which time she also served as the District Attorney's representative at the 44th Precinct's monthly Community Council Meeting. While in law school, she worked for the Legal Aid Society's Manhattan Housing Court Project assisting indigent clients with their benefits and housing issues.

During her time as a Court Attorney, Cynthia was also the Borough Coordinator for the Court Navigator Program under the New York State Access to Justice Program. Cynthia also serves as a Panel Member of the on the New York State Unified Court System's Anti-Discrimination Panel and is a member of the New York Women's Bar Association as well as other bar associations.

Cynthia has also given lectures for the New York County Lawyer's Association Legal Counseling Program training and CLE program and is a Mentor for the volunteer lawyers. She is also an Adjunct Professor at Monroe College where she teaches Criminal Justice courses.

Cynthia also sits on the Board of several non-profit organization as well as her local Community Board.

Cynthia received her law degree from Fordham University in 2005 and her B. A. in Liberal Arts from The City College of the City University of New York in 1999.