

JEAN NORTON, ESQ.

Jean Norton is Assistant Deputy Counsel in the New York State Unified Court System's Office of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) and Director of the Collaborative Family Law Center. The Collaborative Family Law Center helps qualifying, NYC-area couples get divorced without going to court. The Center partners with local courts, law schools, and not-for-profit organizations to offer free divorce mediation services in appropriate cases and to reduce the pain, trauma, and expense of divorce.

As Assistant Deputy Counsel in the ADR Office, Jean works to increase awareness and utilization of court-annexed ADR processes, including mediation, throughout New York State. Before joining the ADR office, she was the Senior Director of the Safe Horizon Domestic Violence and Immigration Law Projects. Jean received her J.D. in 2001 from the Georgetown University Law Center.
